

BYLAWS OF Cellular Journeys, INC.

A Florida Nonprofit Corporation

Article I: Name and Purpose

Section 1. Name

The name of the organization shall be Cellular Journeys, inc. (hereinafter referred to as "the Organization").

Section 2. Purpose

The Organization is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, and scientific purposes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Its mission is to save lives by empowering and educating the world's population with reliable, current, and comprehensible information about the biology and treatment of cancer and other health-related topics. The Organization may acquire or create additional platforms to further its mission of public health education.

Article II: Membership

Section 1. Eligibility

Membership shall be open to any individual or organization that supports the mission and objectives of the Organization. Membership categories may include individual, student, professional, and corporate members.

Section 2. Rights and Privileges

Members shall have the right to participate in general meetings, serve on committees, and access educational resources. Voting rights shall be extended to members in good standing as determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Membership Dues

The Board of Directors shall establish membership dues and policies. Students will not be required to join as members. For others, dues shall be payable on an annual basis. The Board may waive or adjust dues based on financial need or other considerations.

Section 4. Termination of Membership

Membership may be terminated for failure to pay dues, violation of the Organization's policies, or actions contrary to its mission. Termination shall be determined by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Article III: Board of Directors

Section 1. General Powers

The Board of Directors ("the Board") shall oversee the affairs and activities of the Organization, ensuring alignment with its mission and compliance with applicable laws.

Section 2. Number and Term

The Board shall consist of no fewer than three (3) and no more than fifteen (15) Directors. Directors shall serve staggered three-year terms, with one-third of the Board elected annually.

Section 3. Meetings

The Board shall meet at least biannually. Special meetings may be called by the President or a majority of Directors. Meetings may be held in person or via electronic communication.

Section 4. Quorum and Voting

A majority of the Board shall constitute a quorum. Decisions shall be made by a majority vote of those present, unless otherwise specified in these Bylaws.

Section 5. Removal and Vacancies

A Director may be removed by a two-thirds vote of the Board for cause, including but not limited to misconduct or failure to fulfill duties. Vacancies shall be filled by Board appointment for the remainder of the term.

Article IV: Officers

Section 1. Officers and Duties

The officers of the Organization shall be a President, Secretary, and Treasurer. The Board may establish additional officer roles as needed.

- President: Serves as the chief executive officer, presides over meetings, and represents the Organization.
- Secretary: Maintains records, minutes, and ensures compliance with corporate requirements.
- Treasurer: Manages financial records and reporting.

Section 2. Election and Term

Officers shall be elected annually? by the Board and serve one-year terms. Officers may be reelected.

Article V: Committees

The Board may establish committees as needed to carry out the Organization's mission. Committees shall report to the Board and may include non-Board members.

Article VI: Financial Management

Section 1. Fiscal Year

The fiscal year shall be from January 1 to December 31.

Section 2. Financial Oversight

The Board shall approve an annual budget and oversee financial operations. The Treasurer shall present financial reports at each Board meeting.

Section 3. Compensation

Directors and officers shall serve without compensation but may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses.

Article VII: Conflict of Interest Policy

Directors and officers must disclose potential conflicts of interest and recuse themselves from decisions where such conflicts exist.

Article VIII: Amendments

These Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the Board, provided notice is given at least thirty (30) days in advance.

Article IX: Dissolution

Upon dissolution, assets shall be distributed to another 501(c)(3) organization with a similar mission, as determined by the Board.

Adopted this 12th day of June, 2025.